

Worawa Aboriginal College Student Enrolment 2014

Worawa Aboriginal College is accepting Applications for the 2014 school year from Aboriginal girls in the middle years of schooling (for Years 7, 8 and 9).

Worawa is the only Australian boarding school that caters specifically for Aboriginal girls. A small school, located in the beautiful Yarra Valley in Victoria, Worawa provides a safe, caring and supportive environment where girls engage in rich learning experiences. The College adheres to the Aboriginal values of Relationships, Responsibility, Respect and Rigour and encourages all students to set personal, academic and career goals to work towards.

Places are limited and a waiting list may apply. Applications close on Friday 30th October, 2013.

Families will be notified of their daughter's application success in November, 2013.
