

WORAWA ABORIGINAL COLLEGE
30TH ANNIVERSARY

Education Symposium

...not only of Australia's past,
but also its present and future

"Aboriginal children must be educated in the way of our people. They must learn their history, about their great ancestors, the language and the law. It's time for them to know and understand themselves. They must be educated in the ways of the society in which they live, in the very best of what it has to offer, so that they can truly be part, not only of Australia's past, but also its present and future."

- Pastor Sir Douglas Nicholls, March 1983

Date: Monday, 18 March 2013

Location: Worawa Aboriginal College
Barak Lane, Healesville, 278 A9
